2 Hearings

2.1 Hearing of Submissions to the Freedom Camping Bylaw 2014 Proposed Amendments

To present the submissions received to the proposed Freedom Camping Bylaw 2014 amendments for the hearing of submitters. The purpose of the hearing is to give submitters an opportunity to present their submission verbally and answer any questions from elected members.

Council will make its decisions on the proposed amendments at the deliberations meeting scheduled for 9 December 2015.

	Key Points	Questions/Committee and staff response
Don Cresswell	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Overall in favour of bylaw provisions. • Spoke to written submission (Tabled Item) • Discussed the importance of being able to easily identify Designated Freedom Camping sites. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Committee advised Mr Cresswell that Council was restricted to Council Land in relation to designated Freedom Camping Sites.
Amy Hyde	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Supports provisions, however suggests improvements are still needed in Opito Bay • Tabled wording from previous Bylaw, along with a map displaying suggested changes • Raised concern that Freedom Campers were limiting access to areas for 'paying tourists', children and other members of the public • Believes that the increase in dogs travelling with Freedom Campers to the peninsula has increased the risk to dotterel in the area. • Associated Freedom Camping to dune and reserve damage. • Raised concerns regarding the dumping of waste and grey water in public areas • Noted that the behaviour of some campers was unacceptable for a public area ie. Excessive alcohol consumption • Support Complete Prohibition of Opito Bay 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Committee queried whether Ms Hyde was aware of any Council land that would be suitable for a designated Freedom Camping site <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Ms Hyde noted that such a site did not exist in Opito Bay

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advised that the messages displayed on some Wicked Camper rentals was offensive • Suggested that designated Freedom Camping sites should be allocated away from residential areas to limit impact on ratepayers
Alison Mackrell	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advised agreement with Freedom Camping provisions except during Christmas, School Holidays, and long weekends • Believes that there was a lack of consultation and correspondence from TCDC • Noted that the wording for designated Freedom Camping areas and the map that displays these areas do not align. • Ms Mackrell identified two areas which could be potential designated Freedom Camping sites which have been prohibited by Council previously: Mountain Drive and Pleasant Point Reserve 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Committee advised that they were unable to restrict Freedom Camping in the Pauanui Waterways area, and any timing restrictions could only be managed under a parking bylaw. • The Committee also advised that they were bound by the legislation set by Central Government
Brian Cameron	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Noted that New Zealand does not have infrastructure to cope with Freedom Camping • Advised that come wording of the new Bylaw is ambiguous • Noted that maps should clearly identify restricted/prohibited areas • Raised concern regarding traffic from Kuaotunu • Recommended that signage advising restrictions be clearly displayed 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Staff noted that Council had limited control over Freedom Camping in this area. • The Committee advised that Council had already entered into a management agreement with DOC regarding Freedom Camping on non-Council land
Roger and Sally Wells	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Oppose Freedom Camping in Te Puru Reserve • Considers Freedom Camping in Te Puru to be hazardous to pedestrians, as foot traffic may be forced to walk on road to avoid large vehicles • Raised concern regarding danger to Dotterel; grey water being dumped on the beach; and limiting beach accessibility for other users • Noted a decrease in 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Committee queried whether the stress and sleeplessness experienced in relation to Freedom Camping should be considered as health issues • The submitter believed that the effects from Freedom Camping adjacent to their property were detrimental to their health and wellbeing.

	enjoyment of own property <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Raised concern with the number of Freedom Campers and their animals coming onto private property • Also noted the issue of Freedom Campers arriving late at night and shining headlights on property • Recommends that Freedom Camping in Te Puru should be reconsidered.
Fergus Brown	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Wished to congratulate TCDC on their work to date • Noted that prohibiting non-self-contained units was a positive step forward • Noted that there is a significant amount of information on areas where Freedom Camping is permitted. • Advised that health and safety are important considerations in relation to Freedom Camping • Recommended investigating the wider approach that Queenstown Lakes District Council had taken toward Freedom Camping 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> •
Kerry Brew	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Not completely opposed to Freedom Camping • Noted that the proposed amendments will bring balance, however some fine tuning is still required • Noted that Pleasant Point would be a good place for a designated Freedom Camping site • Requested that Pauanui Waterways be prohibited for Freedom Camping • Noted that Pauanui Waterways and Te Puru Reserve have significant freedom camping issues • Noted that Council should have regard for people when developing the bylaw 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Suggested that once one of the three reasons for prohibition under the Act had been established, Council could consider any other factors in deciding whether to prohibit a site in their bylaw. The Committee advised this was not consistent with their understanding of the Act and advice given to them and that they would look into this further.
James Imlach	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Noted that Council has made a concerted effort to address local concerns and has also looked into alternative sites 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Committee raised the issue of false certification of self-contained units and queried how this matter could be remedied.

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Identified 3 main areas of concern: Brown Street in Thames; Carey Road Esplanade; and Waterways Parade • Noted that property views could not dictate prohibited areas • Advised that the NZMCA had made a concerted effort to work with TCDC 	Mr Imlach noted that the vehicles warrant should be checked if there is any doubt that a vehicle is not certified.
Theodora Ward	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Appreciates TCDCs efforts toward monitoring and controlling Freedom Camping • Concerned that Compliance officers may not be in the vicinity at the time of an offence; the availability of officers was also identified as a major concern • Noted that Freedom Camping offences are increasing • Raised concern regarding Freedom camping vehicles blocking views • Questioned the contribution Freedom Campers make to Thames businesses in terms of tourism. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Committee advised that an increase in staff may coincide with an increase in rates. Volunteer Compliance officers were suggested as an alternative. • Ms Ward noted that she currently volunteers as an honorary bylaw officer.

Resolved
